

William Shakespeare

I. Fill in the gaps with the verbs in brackets. Use the past simple. Then put the sentences in chronological order.

In about 1590, he started (start) to write his first plays. There

_____ (not/be) female actresses in those years. Boys _____ (play) all female parts.

He _____ (come back) to Stratford in 1612. Later he _____ (die) of a fever on his birthday in 1616

He _____ (go) to the local Stratford Grammar School. Lesson _____ (begin) at six o'clock in the morning in the summer. They _____ (have) to use daylight.

When William Shakespeare _____ (be) only 14 years old he _____ (have) to leave school because his family was very poor. Soon he _____ (work) in his father's shop.

At the age of 19, William married Anne Hathaway, the daughter of a rich farmer near Stratford. Three years later he _____ (go) to London

1

Shakespeare _____ (be) born in Stratford-upon-Avon on 23rd April, 1564

They _____ (perform) his most famous play, Hamlet, in 1601 at the Globe theatre. Shakespeare _____ (continue) to write about two plays a year.

Frida Kahlo

II. Listen to the audio and order the information chronologically.

Frida Kahlo was a Mexican artist who became famous for her self-portraits that were strongly influenced by her Mexican culture.

Despite her childhood love of drawing Frida Kahlo didn't always want to be artist, she wanted to become a doctor but in 1925 she was in a terrible bus accident the meant she was unable to walk for three months and she began to paint from her hospital bed.

Frida Kahlo is most famous for her many self-portraits, she used her art to express her emotions in various moments of her life and to reflect the lifelong pain she felt after her accident.

At age six Frida contracted a disease called Polio which damaged her right leg and meant she couldn't leave bed for nine months, so instead of playing with her sisters she spent most of her time alone.

She was very proud of her Mexican heritage and this is also shown in her paintings which featured bright colors, dramatic symbols and traditional Mexican clothing.

Frida Kahlo died in 1954 when she was 47 years old, she is remembered as a strong woman who used her art to overcome her circumstances and accomplish great things despite her struggles and she inspires artist to this day to express their emotions through their art.

Frida was born near Mexico City on July 6th 1907 and grew up with her parents and six sisters.

Painting helped her pass the time and to express the pain that she was feeling, Frida wanted to know if she was talented enough to become a professional painter.

In 1931 Diego was asked to paint a mural in San Francisco, so Frida and Diego moved to America they lived there for three years. Diego wanted to stay but Frida was very homesick and unhappy, so they soon moved back to live in Mexico, her unhappiness in her life in America can be seen in her paintings.

So she approached artist Diego Rivera for an opinion on her work, the two artist eventually got married in 1929, they both continued to paint and became very successful artists.