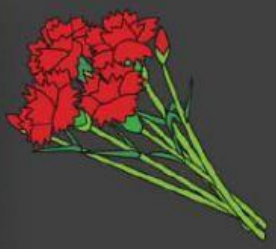
Victory Day



Put the right verbs in the gaps

Victory Day is a very special holiday in Russia. The 9th of May is the day when the Great Patriotic War finished and the Soviet Union _____ Nazi Germany. Since then, Russian people _____ this victory, ____ veterans and give them flowers. Besides, there are many concerts and military parades organized on this day. Another important part of the holiday is the Immortal Regiment: people _____ the streets of their cities with the photographs of their relatives who fought in the war. Many Russians also visit their families, sing war songs, ___ flowers at Eternal Flame and _____ the heroes of the war.

LIVEWORKSHEETS