I saw something strange

Tanya Fletcher saw something very strange when she [1] to school last Thursday. The sun [2] and it was a [3] day. Tanya decided to walk through the fields to school. She [4] at the back of her garden and followed the [5] into the fields. She walked through the first field and into the second field. She [6] that the cows in this field [7] away from something.

Then she opened the gate and walked into the apple [8]. The birds in [9] were singing and Tanya was thinking about her first lesson at school that day. Then she suddenly heard a [10] 'I didn't know what it was,' says Tanya. 'At first I thought it was a cat but then I realized that the sound was different.' After [11], the sound stopped, but Tanya felt quite scared. She ran through the orchard and stopped [12] between the orchard and her school. She looked back at the trees and saw a strange [13] in the corner of the orchard.

She [14] of the animal with her mobile phone and then she ran into her school and showed the photo to a teacher. The teacher called the police [15]

LIVEWORKSHEETS