

Skills Revision

Firstly, it's important to be open and kind. When new neighbours move in to the house next door, visit them with your family, ¹shake hands and say 'Hi!' This will help them feel relaxed and very welcome. Always smile at them too and say 'Hello'. It's possible you ² be good friends one day.

How to be a good neighbour

Sometimes your neighbours are old people. You don't have to invite them to your house every day, but you ³ be friendly. Why don't you visit them sometimes and talk for ten minutes? They'll love it, but you must remember to be polite. When they are speaking, you ⁴ interrupt. Open the door for them and offer to help with their shopping too. They will love your good manners!

Finally, keep your garden and street clean. You ⁵ drop litter and make sure you put any you see in the bin. Remember to clean ⁶ after your pet dog in your garden and in the street outside your house. Your neighbours ⁷ love your pet too!

What makes me happy

First of all, I know lots of people and I've got two best friends, so I can say I'm a happy girl. My guitar makes me really happy too. I play alone when I'm at home and I play in a band too. I'm ¹playing in my band at school tomorrow. I hope everyone ² like our music! And of course I'm always happy when I do well ³ school. Finally, my family makes me happy – most of the time!

I'm sure the same things will make me happy ⁴ the future, but I don't think much about it now. My friends often ask me, 'What job will you ⁵?' Sometimes I want to be an actor but I'm not sure. They also ask, 'Will you ⁶ a family?' I think I want a family, but I don't know when. Right now I just want me and my friends to be happy. Please ⁷ ask me any more questions because I don't know the answers. Try again next year!
