

The Iberians and the celts

They settled in the North West and centre of the Iberian Peninsula. _____

They settled in the East and South East of the Iberian Peninsula in the Bronze Age.

They lived in fortified settlements on hills. _____

They were farmers, metalworkers and warriors. _____

They built rectangular. _____

They built round houses. _____

They were farmers, craftsmen, warriors and traders. _____

They lived in walled towns called forts _____

They used their money for trading. _____

They also developed their own writing. _____

They traded goods with other cultures. _____