

EX 1: Complete each sentence with one of the verbs from the box, and either to or for.

booked · buying · fetched · handed · offered · promising saved · owed · teaching · telling · threw

EG. She owed quite a lot of money to the bank.

1. Daddy's a new bicycle me for my next birthday.
2. The workman the electric drill his assistant.
3. She a piece of cake the vicar, who politely declined.
4. They two tickets on the Orient Express themselves.
5. She's a new song the children.
6. She the frisbee her dog, which caught it easily.
7. They're a reward anyone who gives them any information.
8. He went and something her to write with.
9. I've the last piece of cake you.
10. He's always stupid jokes anyone who will listen.

EX 2: Write the sentence in a different way to show that there are two ways to say the same thing.

1) Julia gave a new dress to her mom.

2) Italia gave an English class on line to her new students.

3) I lent a book to Graciela.

4) My friends send lots of text to me.

5) Manuel showed the furniture to us.

6) My dad wrote a check for the baby sitter.

7) I asked the teacher the time.

8) They offered the business to Samuel.

9) I showed the new computer to my granddaughters.

10) The boy asked me for directions
