

ENGLISH FOR TRAVELLERS

Write x on the lines you hear:

Hello, my name's Pablo.

Hi, there. I'm Pablo.

I'm from Santiago.

I come from Santiago.

Santiago is a mix of old buildings and new buildings.

I'm a taxi driver.

I'm a bus driver.

In my job I speak Spanish and English.

I speak Spanish and Italian in my job.

It's very rainy and I hate it.

It's very cold but I love it.

-

Hi, how are you? I'm Eric.

Hello, my name's Eric.

I'm from British Columbia in Canada.

I'm from Colombia.

I work as a waiter.

I'm a waiter.

People are very nice, very friendly.

People are very sociable here.

I speak English and French in my job.

I speak French and Spanish in my job.

Canada is beautiful. The rivers, the mountains are really beautiful.

My name's Nina and I'm a student at university in Muscat (Oman).

I speak English and Arabic.

Muscat is a beautiful city.

Muscat is a wonderful place.

I'm not from the south, I'm from the north.

I'm not from Muscat, I'm from a small village in the countryside.

Muscat is a big city. There are old buildings here.

It's very hot in my village, but I love it.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ygb0J3h6wqo&list=PLSFosUuLs5yLe2mhgRD2-6BgTopcxMCaT&index=1>