

1. Choose the correct answer.

What is the number of inhabitants in Spain?

☐

74 million

☐

47 million

☐

490.000

How do you refer to a person who is 65 or over?

Young

Adult

Elderly

2. Select True or False.

☐

Birth rate is the number of people born during one year.

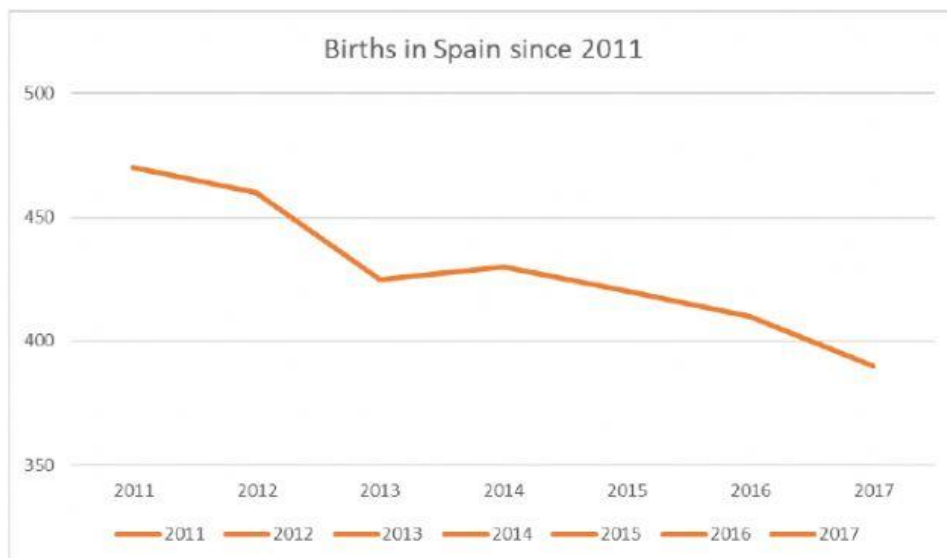

☐

Rural exodus refers to people moving from urban areas to rural areas.

☐

The padrón is a national Survey.

3. Look at the graph to answer the questions below.

In which year were more babies born? _____

When were more births, in 2013 or 2014? _____

Do you think there has been an increase or a decrease in the number of births between 2011 and 2017? _____