

Write the appropriate phrasal verb underneath the verb in bold

1. If you don't treat her nicely, she's going to end the relationship with you break up
2. Why are you so miserable? If I buy you a cake, will it make you feel better?
3. I've lost the files, but luckily someone saved a copy of them last night.
4. If you mention the fact that they aren't invited to the party, they'll be upset.
5. I've decided I'm going to accept the job offer. It's a great position.
6. Just as we were about to quit, the clouds parted and we could see the mountain.
7. Find the prisoner, wash him and bring him in here for interrogation.
8. God that stinks! I think I'm going to vomit my breakfast!
9. My parents argue a lot, it's true, but they always reconcile eventually.
10. There's no pointing becoming angry at me, I didn't break your chair!