A: Where have you been?
B: Don't ask. I got a flat tyre on Alder Street as I was coming home. When I realised it, I slammed on the brakes and almost lost control of the car.
A: Are you all right?
B: Yeah. Anyway, as soon as I opened the boot, I saw that I had no spare.
A: How unlucky! Did you call the AA?
B: I wanted to, but guess what! My phone was dead. I couldn't even call you to come and pick me up. So, I just took a cab.
A: Oh, you poor thing! Is there anything I can do to help?
B: Well, I'm going to need someone to drive me to my car tomorrow.
A: No problem.

- C: You look upset. What's up?
D: The police pulled me over yesterday.
C: Why? Were you speeding?
D: No, I was talking on my mobile phone while I was driving.
C: You should know better than that! What now? Are they going to take your licence away?
D: No, but they gave me a ticket and I have to pay a fine. It's my own fault. I know it's illegal.
C: Yes, and very dangerous. What were you thinking?

3

- E: Hey! Excuse me!
F: What's the matter? Why are you beeping your horn?
E: What do you think you're doing?
F: I'm trying to get into this parking space. Is it illegal to park here?
E: No, just watch where you're going.
F: Why is that?
E: You bumped into my motorbike and almost knocked me over while you were reversing.
F: Did I? I'm really sorry. I didn't see you. Is everything all right?
E: Yeah, I think so.
