

Practice 22.1C Identifying Nominative Case Pronouns

Read the sentence. Select the correct pronoun from the choice in parentheses. Then, label the pronoun subject or a verb or predicate pronoun.

EXAMPLE: Marty and (I, me) ate lunch.

ANSWER: I- subject of a verb

1. Apparently (she, her) and Lucy were early.
2. The heads of the student body are Randolph and (I, me).
3. On our street, the Jacksons and (we, us) are the only ones with satellite television.
4. Either Doris or (he, him) Will win the prize.
5. (They, them) and their friends chat a lot on their cell phones.
6. The first two people in line were Maurice and (she, her).
7. When the ship sailed into the harbor, (they, them) and the crew cheered.
8. I think the most helpful guidance counselors are Mrs. Kelvin and (he, him).
9. Did (we, us) or the Robinsons arrive first?
10. Before this summer, the best player had been Chester or (I, me).

Practice 22.1D Using Nominative Case Pronouns in Sentences

Read the sentences. Then, write a nominative case pronoun to fill the blank. Vary the nominative case pronouns you use.

EXAMPLE Entering the room first were Dominic and _____.

ANSWER Entering the room first were Dominic and he.

11. Sam and _____ make up the best doubles team in the city.
12. Can Phil and _____ help you with the project?
13. Standing beneath the birch trees were Carol and _____.
14. My brother and _____ may be a little late.
15. If you ask me nicely, _____ will help you fill out the form.