We've been here for two days. We're staying in a ¹ hotel. It was built in the 17th century. The public rooms are very ² , with lots of valuable furniture and paintings. But after seeing those, the bedrooms are ³ – very small and dark. It's not ⁴ either – it costs much more money than I planned to spend! The location of the hotel is rather ⁵ , so you have to hire a car or motorbike to get to town. Most of the town is very ⁶ , with narrow alleys and old stone houses. It sometimes feels like you're in a film. The main market, though, is extremely ⁷ – you can only buy silly hats, scarves and 'handmade' dolls. The market and the main square are also very ⁸ – it's almost impossible to walk around because of all the people.
