

the Present, Past, Future Simple Passive or Active.

1. Dinara lives in Kazan.

What is Dinara saying about her hometown? Use the verbs in the Present, Past, Future Simple Passive or Active.

My city is very old, it (found) in 1005.
Kazan (destroy) by wars and fires. After one of the fires the icon¹ Our Lady of Kazan (discover). Today it is a famous icon and it (respect) by many Christians.

During the Great Patriotic War Kazan
(become) an important city where planes and tanks (produce).

Today Kazan is the capital of Tatarstan. In 2005 we (celebrate) its birthday, one millennium. The Kazan Kremlin was the centre of the celebration. The Kremlin (include) Muslim and Christian monuments. The Qol Sharif mosque (rebuild) in 1996, it's one of the largest mosques in Russia. The magnificent The Qol Sharif mosque Blagoveshchensky Cathedral (build) in the middle of the sixteenth century.

I am sure that my city will be better and more beautiful. In a few years' time, new underground railways and new roads² (build). New wonderful buildings (design) in the future. I hope that our people (create) new theatres, museums, unique medical centres and big libraries.

¹ an icon ['aɪkən] — икона

² a road [rəʊd] — дорога