

Name:.....

1. What is packaging?
 - a. Packaging is a container with a capacity for goods.
 - b. Packaging is used to protect and preserve something from spoilage.
 - c. The packaging is made of aluminum, polystyrene beads and plastic.

2. What waste materials are accumulating in our oceans?
 - a. Ocean trash is the waste that people throw into the sea.
 - b. Plastic, plastic bags, polystyrene and glass accumulate in the sea.
 - c. Such a large amount of waste is dumped into the sea due to human activities that do not care about the environment.

3. Ways to Reduce Ocean Plastic Pollution. Find unrelated sentence?
 - a. Reduce Your Use of Single-Use Plastics
 - b. Participate In (or Organize) a Beach or River Cleanup
 - c. Recycle Properly
 - d. Read a book

4. Match the concept with the information?

1. Blue Water Footprint

a. The amount of surface water and groundwater required (evaporated or used directly) to produce an item.

2. Green Water Footprint

b. The amount of rainwater required (evaporated or used directly) to make an item.

3. Grey Water Footprint

c. The amount of freshwater required to dilute the wastewater generated in manufacturing, in order to maintain water quality, as determined by state and local standards.

5. Match the data?

1. Car

a. 659 gallons

2. Smart phone (mobile)

b. 13,737 – 21,926 gallons

3. T-shirt (cotton)

c. 3,190 gallons

6. Match the concept with the pictures?

Aluminum or steel cans

Cardboard boxes

Polystyrene beads

Fruit peel

7. What is a country?

.....

.....

.....

8. What are some ways to reduce ocean trash?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....