When he was young, he was dreaming to follow his father's footsteps,

Prof. Datuk Jimmy Choo was born in Penang

Although he is now a renowned shoe designer,

His father, a shoemaker who made all of his shoes by hand, taught him the craft,

He met so many famous film stars, artists and designers throughout his career, so it inspired him to make his first pair of shoes when he was 11 years old.

but not only to become a shoe designer but a good shoe craftsman.

so he learned a lot from them.

and is a Malaysian shoe designer currently based in the United Kingdom.

yet he still feels that he is not good enough and needs to keep learning.
