MUSIC UNIT 5

NAME: _____

1. Indicate the correct term that corresponds with the following definition: "series of sounds organized in ascending or descending order".

Interval Sharp

Scale Flat

2. Match the term with its definition:

Melody	It is the smaller part of a melody that makes sense musically
Musical phrase	It consists in a continuous repetition of a short rhythmic or melodic series of notes
Canon	Series of sounds of different pitches with a defined rhythm that expresses a musical idea
Ostinato	It is a type of musical composition for several parts. All the parts perform the same melody

3. Click on the correct sentences:

a) The composers of traditional music are always know

b) Traditional music is learnt in conservatories

c) Ethnomusicology is the discipline that studies traditional music, dance and instruments.

d) Traditional music doesn't exist in all the countries and communities

e) The difference between two notes is called an interval

4. Match the term with its characteristics:

	The composer is usually anonymous
Classical or formal music	It's complex and difficult to memorise
	It's passed on orally and changes over time
	It's learnt informally in families or communities
Traditional or folk music	The composer is usually known
	It's performed by professional musicians

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Indicate the correct sentences about Manuel de Falla.

- He was born in Cadiz
- He had never lived in Paris
- He moved to Portugal, where he died
- He composed a great amount of pieces of music based by the folklore in Spain

6. Join each instrument with a gap:

Percussion instruments
Aerophone instruments
Chordophone instruments

zambomba	dulzaina	lute
bagpipe	tambourine	timple

7. Click on the traditional dances which are typical from Spain :

- Isa
- Seguidilla
- Samoth
- Sardana
- Tango
- Muñeira
- Jota
- Badoise

8. Match each dance with its region

Parranda	Madrid
Muñeira	Andalucía
Chotis	La Rioja
Sevillana	País Vasco
Aurresku	Murcia
Danza de zancos	Galicia

LIVEWORKSHEETS