

Can / Can't / Could / Couldn't

1. Read the sentences below and then complete the grammar rules in the box.

- Pixar can produce good animation films.
- You can't enter late to a cinema.
- The audiences could read the dialogues on screen.
- People from 1980 couldn't watch 3D movies.

- We use when we talk about an ability in the present.
- We use when we talk about a lack of ability in the present.
- We use when we talk about an ability in the past.
- We use when we talk about a lack of ability in the past.

2. Read carefully, choose the correct option and tick (✓) it.

- The end was very predictable. You could ☐ / couldn't ☐ guess it.
- The actor can ☐ / can't ☐ continue filming. He has broken his leg.
- I didn't like the film at all because i could ☐ / couldn't ☐ understand the plot.
- My father can ☐ / can't ☐ talk several languages so he understands a lot of films.
- Lights went off last night , so John could ☐ / couldn't ☐ see the film yesterday

Glossary:

Predictable: predecible

Plot: trama

Several: varios

Lights went off:

se fueron las luces

3. Read carefully and match the two columns to make complete sentences.

Sarah can't come to the cinema today...

...despite having watched a horror movie.

Films couldn't be animated in the 70s...

... so don't buy a ticket for her.

John could sleep well last night...

...even in your living room.

You can watch 3D films nowadays...

...as there weren't powerful computers.

4. Write 2 more sentences about what people in the cinema CAN and CAN'T do.

You can eat popcorn in a cinema.

You can't eat talk in a cinema.

