The Hook: A Scary Story

The news had been on the radio all day. A crazy man had escaped from the state hospital. They called him the Hook Man since he had replaced his right hand with a hook. He was a killer, and everyone in the area was warned to keep watch and report anything suspicious.

Britney was ready and waiting when her friend, Tom, came to pick her up in his car. First, they went to a drive-in movie to watch the movie "Star Wars" and then headed over to the city square. Britney and Tom

Then the news announcer came on the radio and repeated the warning she had heard that afternoon. An insane killer with a hook in place of his right hand was loose in the area.

"Maybe we should get out of here," Britney said. "That Hook Man sounds dangerous."

"Aww, come on, it's nothing," Tom said. "No, really. We're all alone out here. I'm scared," she said.

They argued for a moment. Then the car shook a bit, as if something...or someone...had moved it. Britney gave a scream and said: "Get us out of here now!"

They drove home in silence, and when they pulled into her driveway, Tom refused to help her out of the car. He was being so unreasonable. She opened the door and stepped onto her driveway. Whirling around, she slammed the door as hard as she could. And then she screamed.

Tom jumped out of the car and caught her in his arms. "What is it? What's wrong?" he shouted. Then he saw it. A bloody hook hung from the handle of her door.
