The Lost Island of Atlantis

Plato was a writer. He lived in ancient Greece. He wrote about an amazing island called Atlantis. This is the story.

Many smart people lived on the Island of Atlantis. They wanted.....(have) the best island in the world. And they didn't mind..... (work) hard. Some of them would like (build) beautiful palaces and houses. Others preferred.....(look) after animals and..... (have) farms. There were fields and mountains all over the island. There were rivers, too. It was a beautiful place, and people enjoyed..... (live) there. They managed..... (live) peacefully and happily together. But then, one day, the island disappeared! What happened? Was there a terrible storm? Was there a volcano?

Did it disappear under the sea? Is the story real or is it only a myth? Many people would like..... (find) out! Scientists are trying.....(find) this ancient city.

They hope..... (solve) the mystery of Atlantis by using satellites and new underwater technology.

Ancient cave art discovery

In 1940, four French boys and their dog decided..... {explore} near their village.

People said there were secret caves and tunnels in the woods, and the boys wanted..... {find} them.

The boys walked for a long time, but they enjoyed..... {explore} and were very happy. Suddenly, their dog found a mysterious hole. Was it a cave? The boys begun.....{move} plants and stones from the hole. Then they climbed in. They were in a group of caves. It was dark, but the boys didn't mind.....{be} tired because they were too excited! They were looking around the different caves. Suddenly, they saw some amazing paintings of animals on the walls. They couldn't believe it! At first, they promised..... {keep} the caves secret. They didn't want people..... {go} there. But the paintings were too important. So, they agreed.....{tell} their teacher about them. Later, historians and scientists visited the caves and began.....

{examine} the paintings. They were thousands of years old.
