

THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS

Complete the sentences with the words given. DO NOT CHANGE their form.

lashed out elusive utilise elation obliterate worried sick captivity bottle up glee cracked up seething with anger solitary grow on choke up anguish

1. The _____ of being the first people ever to see this was simply gob smacking.
2. Instead of discussing their problems, they _____ all their anger and resentment.
3. Some members of our association are _____ about how they are going to survive.
4. Their warheads are enough to _____ the world several times over.
5. Children were held in _____ until British soldiers entered the village.
6. Because people left the village before the volcano erupted, the lava destroyed only a _____ community.
7. I tried my best to control my emotions – but finally, I _____.
8. Terrible _____ struck her heart, she felt a dreadful ache as if something was being torn inside her.
9. I didn't like him at first, but he's starting to _____ me.
10. He could hardly contain his _____ over his victory.
11. The fact that a death in the family makes us _____ only shows that we are humans, bounded by mortality.
12. It is too subtle and too _____ to be judged by external appearances.
13. I was _____ all the way home from Sydney to Perth because of his stupid and rude comments.
14. The cook will _____ the leftover ham bone to make soup.
15. My coach _____ at me today for being five minutes late to practice and I was shocked at how angry he was.

Teacher Jurgita