

ADJECTIVES WITH -ED AND -ING

AN ADJECTIVE is a word that tells us more about a noun. EXAMPLE: Bobby has a young son.

	Adjectives with -ed	Adjectives with -ing
Use to	Describe someone's feelings	Describe someone or something that causes a feeling.
Example	I am confused .	The recipe is confusing .
Note	We often use adjectives with -ing with It's , That's , and How .

PRACTICE: Choose the correct word.

1. My chair is very relaxing / relaxed.
2. I feel very relaxing / relaxed when I sit in this chair.
3. English is interesting / interested to me.
4. I am interesting / interested in English.
5. I feel boring / bored when I watch TV.
6. It's boring / bored to watch a lot of TV.
7. Tom's job loss is worrying / worried. He doesn't know what to do.
8. Tom is worrying / worried because he lost his job.
9. Carmen is exhausting / exhausted because she worked 12 hours today.
10. Carmen's job is exhausting / exhausted.
11. Olga is frustrating / frustrated when her son doesn't listen to her.
12. Her son's behavior is frustrating / frustrated.
13. Selma is annoying / annoyed when there is a lot of traffic.
14. The traffic is annoying / annoyed to her.
15. I am depressing / depressed because it is raining.
16. He said it's raining again. How depressing / depressed!