

#3. Listen to a word and click its English counterpart in the sentence.

- 1.He hoped that Member States would continue to recognize the importance of the treaty bodies' work and allocate them an adequate budget.
- 2.The seventeenth round of the talks was also attended by the former Special Representative of the European Union, Pierre Morel.
- 3.The first batch of liquid jet engines for anti-aircraft missiles was produced.
- 4.The mine would still represent a danger to civilians because it could explode under some conditions.
- 5.The Committee is concerned that there is no comprehensive and independent monitoring of the Convention's implementation in the State party.
- 6.Financial institutions are encouraged to develop and implement strategies for the reporting of suspicious transactions.
- 7.In addition, the Somali border with Kenya remained closed during the reporting period.
- 8.As a result, one Azerbaijani civilian was killed and one serviceman of the armed forces of Azerbaijan was seriously wounded.
- 9.Within the Ministry of Labor and Social Policy there is a Sector for the Protection of Persons with Disabilities.
- 10.As migrants travel from their country of departure to the country of destination, they may pass through other countries.
- 11.And you're walking towards the chemistry lab to finish the research your dissertation.
- 12.The Committee also argued that armed rebellion in Darfur is not new.
- 13.In the case of massacres endured in the twentieth century, such storytelling can last decades.

14.The Chairman acknowledged that the Commission could discuss and change any of the draft provisions.

15.Human intake through the diet may approach or even exceed the PTDI, particularly in tropical and developing countries.

16.Aircraft dropped internationally prohibited cluster bombs on the outskirts of the towns of Qabrikha, Al-Saluqi, Al-Ghandouriyeh and Al-Qantara.

17.A Prime Minister can't resign over such a low-level decision.

18.Another key factor for an effective implementation of the ISAs is the development of an appropriate transition strategy.

19.The Government is engaged in negotiation of a transfer agreement with the European Union and is considering the joint European Union/UNODC proposal.

20.The following day, Government soldiers attempted to raid a house occupied by SLM-Minawi soldiers in El Fasher.

21.It is noted that the meeting was held over a four-day period, as 26 October was an official United Nations holiday.

22.Timber was the second largest export, but unregulated logging and smuggling had caused deforestation rates to rise.

23.It was suggested that financial institutions and banks should also participate in the High-level Dialogue.

24.They've had one killed and one wounded from sniper and mortar fire, so keep your P.P.E. on at all times.

25.In this respect it should be noted that resignation does cover in fact a variety of reasons.

26.The weekly "Vreme", both in its political and satirical pieces, dissects high-level State officials and directors and editors of the State television.

27.A practice adopted by many States is the creation of a duty for certain private entities to report suspicious transactions to appropriate authorities.