

I live in a small town by the lake in England. It's so beautiful with tall green trees! There are not many shops here, but I can find whatever I want. There's a nice boutique in the town center and it's my favorite. I go there to buy new fashionable clothes on Saturdays. There's a movie theater next to the boutique. I watch films there with my best friend, Alice, every Sunday. After that, we go to a café to drink something and have a chat. On the way home, Alice goes to the bakery to buy some muffins and I go to the butcher's to get some meat for dinner. There's a big library close to my house. I sometimes go there after school to borrow books for my school projects. The municipality in our town organizes courses for teenagers. Alice and I attend French classes at the city hall. Our teachers are great and we have lots of fun during the lessons. Our classes are from 4 pm to 6 pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
