

Match the expression to the meaning.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Be in two minds about sth | A. To be forgotten (Especially events) |
| 2. Bear sth in mind/ bear in mind (that) | B. It is not important; You want the other person to forget about it. |
| 3. Blow someone's mind | C. to be undecided about something. |
| 4. Change your mind | D. To say what you think about something directly. |
| 5. Make up one's mind | E. This is when you forget everything and can't form a single thought. |
| 6. Never mind | F. To remember; to consider; to note. |
| 7. Slip your mind | G. A calm, untroubled emotional state |
| 8. Speak your mind | H. To astonish someone, to flabbergast someone |
| 9. Mind goes blank | I. To decide, to reach a conclusion. |
| 10. Peace of mind | J. To go mad. |
| 11. Lose one's mind | K. To change your decision |