

decompose - artificial - pollution - dioxide - air - water agricultural - oxygen - burning - factories

a. _____ happens when nature does not know how to
b. _____ an element that was not introduced in the environment naturally. If we put in the environment c. _____ things like plastic, we pollute the environment. There are many types of pollution. First, there is
d. _____ pollution. Some of the main sources of this kind of pollution are the e. _____ of fossil fuels and emissions of carbon f. _____ from vehicles and g. _____. Then, there's h. _____ pollution.
Sources of this kind of pollution include the waste from i. _____ fields, industrial sites and urban areas. Additionally, if fertilizers get thrown into the sea, algae grows too much, which reduces the amount of available
j. _____ for other species.