

SPECIAL CONCERT

Singer Elton John

Famous singer Elton John is hosting a special concert on March 29. Other famous singers, including Tim McGraw, Alicia Keys, Mariah Carey, Billie Eilish and more, will perform in the concert. Unlike a typical concert, the singers will not be together in one place because of the coronavirus. The singers will perform in their homes. The singers will be filmed with cell phones and cameras and the videos will be shared during the concert. People can watch the concert on TVs. The concert will raise money for charities that help people who have been affected by the coronavirus.
