

Work or Job?

job n. [C] 1 an activity you do to earn your living, especially if you are working for somebody else. I have a job in a shop.

2 a specific piece of work that has to be done. Who does all the jobs around the house?

work n. [U] 1 an activity you are paid for doing, especially regularly. What work do you do? 2 a general word when you are talking about several different jobs. He's got a lot of work to do.

Match the work + preposition phrases in the left-hand column with the phrases in the right-hand column.

- | | |
|-------------|-----------------------------|
| a work in | 1 a fast food restaurant |
| b work as | 2 small children |
| c work for | 3 a project |
| d work on | 4 a computer programmer |
| e work out | 5 a large company |
| f work with | 6 the solution to a problem |

a b c d e f

Complete the sentences with work or job.

- What's your father's job
- Does he usually have a lot of
- I like doing projects, but they are hard
- Would you like to get a for the holidays?
- Charlie graduated from university last month. He needs to get a but he doesn't know what kind of he wants to do.

- I'm a bit nervous. I'm starting a new next week.
- I hear you're a lorry driver. I bet that's hard, isn't it?
- I'm looking for part-time A full-time would be too much for me at the moment.
- I didn't really want to go back to after I had the baby.
- I'm sorry, I can't stop now. I've got a lot of to do.
- Judging by the car he drives, I'd say he's got a pretty good
- I'm hoping to find some casual while I'm at college – working in a bar or a shop.
- I want to do something a bit different. I wouldn't like a regular nine-to-five