

2

Look at Appendix 2 on pages 246–253, then fill in the correct preposition.

- 1 The lifeguard saved the child drowning.
- 2 He was sorry the way he had behaved at the party.
- 3 Claire spent all her pocket money sweets.
- 4 She hasn't got a lot of taste clothes.
- 5 She has warned her son talking to strangers.

2

Look at Appendix 2 on pages 246–253, then fill in the correct preposition.

- 1 I usually travel to work bus.
- 2 I must pass my exams all costs.
- 3 The bus only stops here request.
- 4 I was a loss for words when I saw him.
- 5 Mum made the scarf hand.

2

Look at Appendix 2 on pages 246–253, then fill in the correct preposition.

- 1 Help! The house is fire.
- 2 After running up the hill, I was breath.
- 3 The miners have been strike for two months.
- 4 The police have got the riot control.
- 5 The lift has been order for two days.