

4.1 Infectious and Non-infectious diseases

Diseases

_____ diseases

_____ be transmitted from one person to another

Spread by _____ through

1. _____ (mosquitoes, flies, rats)

2. _____ (air, water,

_____ diseases

_____ be transmitted from one person to another

Caused by

Infectious

Non-infectious

asthma

Cannot

leptospirosis

tuberculosis

flu

mediums

lifestyle

vectors

cancer

Can

pathogens

hypertension

genetic factor

diabetes

dengue fever

ringworm

_____ are organisms that cause diseases, such as

_____, _____ and _____.

Airborne diseases

a) Can be transmitted in two ways- _____ transmission and _____ transmission.

b) Can be prevented by practising the following ways i.

ii. _____

c) Examples : _____, _____, _____, _____ and _____.

Pathogens

flu

fungi

virus

chicken pox

SARS

tuberculosis

Avoid crowded places

bacteria

Cover the mouth when sneezing

Influenza A (H1N1)