

Before we start, let's make a quick review:

- Correct the sentences.

a. She get up at seven o'clock

b. They aren't at home, they is at work.

c. She is a teacher. She works in a hospital.

d. I isn't work in an office.

e. What do you for a living?

f. Do your boyfriend goes to work by car?

Can/Can't

- We use CAN/CAN'T to talk about abilities.
for example: I can speak English.
I can't cook ratatouille.
- To ask questions, CAN goes at the beginning:
Can you speak French?
And with wh-words, CAN goes after the question word:
What can you do?

You first
