

Analysing how description shapes character

“Say cheese!” the exasperated photographer shouted, as she pointed her camera toward the group of squirming children. Margot displayed her broadest, most convincing fake smile as she inched ever closer to her younger cousin. Just as the photographer's finger twitched over the shutter button, Margot leaned into her young cousin's side and pinched hard. The boy let out a yelp, just as the camera clicked.

You can probably make some assumptions about Margot from the brief segment above.

If you had to name three character traits to describe her, what would they be? Is she a nice, innocent girl? Doesn't seem like it from this passage?

1. From the brief paragraph, we can assume that she's...

2. Is Margot's cousin a boy or a girl?
