

The Lion's Den

I. Study the vocabulary and read the commix.

 You are all my good friends. I want you to tell me how my den smells. Oh Lion, I am your good friend, and I am not afraid to tell you. Your den smells bad.	 GRRRRR! You are not a very good friend. How can you say that my den smells bad? Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!	 What a fool! I am your friend, King Lion, and I'll tell you how your den smells. It smells like flowers. You bad monkey! You are a fool too! Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!
 And how do you think my den smells? Well, King Lion, I can't tell. I have a bad cold, and I can't smell anything.	 You are very clever, my friend. You have saved both my feelings and your own skin.	Vocabulary Den /den/ barlog, pestera skin /skin/ piele Smell /smel/ miros, a mirosi fool /fu:/ prost, neghiob Have a cold- a fi racit

II. Match:

- | | | |
|---------------|------------------|------------------------|
| 1 The dog | tells the lie. | The dog is devoted. |
| 2. The rabbit | can't smell. | The rabbit is clever . |
| 3. The fox | tells the truth. | The fox is liar. |

III. Make up sentences using the words:

- | | | |
|-------|-------------|-----------------|
| Den | have a cold | clever |
| Skin | feelings | to be afraid of |
| Smell | eat up | smell bad |
