

If I Mary, I her.

If Tara free tomorrow, he her.

If they pass their exam, their teacher will sad.

If it tomorrow, at home?

If it tomorrow, what ?

I Mary if I her.

He Tara if she tomorrow.

Their teacher if they their exam.

 at home if it tomorrow?

What if tomorrow?

If I to Paris next month for work, I the Eiffel Tower (Plans)

If I time, I you. (Promise)

If you that wire, you an electric shock. (Warning)

If you [redacted] my chocolate that is in the fridge, you [redacted]
outside with the dog.(Threat)

If you [redacted] me to the mall, I [redacted] you an ice cream.
(Persuasion)

If she [redacted] to university, her parents [redacted] happy.

If it [redacted], we [redacted] the trip.

If that candidate [redacted] President, the country [redacted] in trouble.

If I [redacted] the competition, I [redacted] half of the prize money to charity.

I [redacted] annoyed if they [redacted] on time.

You [redacted] a better job if you can speak English.

You will miss the bus if you [redacted] up.

The dog [redacted] you if you [redacted] its tail.

Your boss [redacted] angry if you [redacted] the job.

What [redacted] if they [redacted] you?

You [redacted] better if you [redacted] this medicine.