

Language

Travel vocabulary, describing a place

General information

You can watch the video on your computer or download it onto a portable device. You can choose to watch it with or without subtitles. Use the pause and cursor controls to watch parts of the video again. There are exercises on this activity sheet to complete before you watch, while you are watching and after you watch.

Important: This is an authentic extract from a BBC TV programme. Don't try to understand every word you hear. Watch and listen for specific information by completing these tasks.

Programme details

This video is from a series called Culture Shock. In the series, experts and creative people talk about different forms of art and literature.

Before you watch

- 1 Complete the descriptions using the words in the box.

expedition	experiences	journals	journey
travelled	went

- Herodotus was an ancient Greek historian who lived in the 5th century BC. He _____ widely around the Mediterranean and Black Sea, writing about his _____.
- Marco Polo (1254–1324) was an Italian merchant who _____ on an epic 24-year _____ to Asia with his father and uncle, writing about their adventures.
- Captain Robert Scott (1868–1912) was a Royal Navy officer and explorer. His _____ about his final doomed _____ to the Antarctic are famous.

- 2 What do the three people all have in common?

- 3 In what ways do you think travel writing has changed in the last 30 years?

While you watch

- 4 Watch the video and write the names of the places the authors have written about.

- 1 William Dalrymple

- 2 Sara Wheeler

- 5 Watch the video again and complete the sentences with the words in the box.

diverse	enormous	important	intrigued	potent ultimate

- It is quite literally the most _____ white sheet.
 - You've got to show how _____, how extraordinary, how surprising the world is.
 - The travel writer's job has never been more _____.
 - For me (this place) was always the _____ destination for myself as a travel writer.
 - It's a very _____ symbol.
 - In ten years I am only more baffled and more _____ by (this place).
- 6 Match the quotes in exercise 5 with the writers. Write the numbers.

- 1 William Dalrymple

- 2 Sara Wheeler

- 7 Watch the video again to check your answers to exercises 5 and 6.

- 8 What do you think the phrases in italics mean? Re-write them in your own words.

- There are few places in the world that haven't been well trodden.
- Some places that you go to, you feel you've got the hang of it in a month or a couple of months.
- One doesn't have to bother about trying to get to grips with the culture because there isn't any.
- What I wanted to do in Terra Incognita was weave together lots of strands.

After you watch

9 Answer the questions.

- 1 Which of the two places in the video would you most like to visit and why?

- 2 How would you compare the two places?

- 3 How would you describe the country where you live, compared to the two places in the video?

Glossary

baffle (verb) – if a problem, someone's behaviour etc baffles you, you cannot understand it enthraling (adjective) – so interesting or exciting that you give it all your attention fuse (verb) – to combine to form something new grip (noun) – a firm strong hold gripping (adjective) – very exciting and interesting potent (adjective) – powerful, or effective strand (noun) – one of the different aspects of something tabula rasa (noun) – the condition of a person's mind before it has been changed or influenced in any way tread (verb) – to walk or step on something weave (verb) – to include something in a story, plan etc