

PRACTICE

Past Modals of Deduction

Complete the following sentences using the correct past modals of deductions based on the evidence provided ("must have", "may have", or "can't have" + the verbs in parentheses).

1. Your mother _____ (be) a great cook. Your siblings were fighting over her old cooking book.
2. I'm not sure yet, but I guess Gracia _____ (eat) my cookies. Her smile was suspicious.
3. Denis _____ (get) lost. He knows this neighborhood like the back of his hand!
4. I can see that Carol is still mad at me. She _____ (leave) my bags outside the house. I will have to apologize again!
5. The thief _____ (go) that far. Look at the floor! He's bleeding; we have to follow his blood.
6. It hasn't been confirmed yet, but I think Rebeca and Leo _____ (break) up. This might be my opportunity to confess my love!