Americans want to get their food quickly. That's why there are lots of fast-food restaurants in the US. However, Italians don't feel that way. They like to take their time. They don't rush through cooking, and they don't eat in a hurry, either. To them, slow meals are the best meals. They enjoy many dishes like starters and desserts instead of just one main dish. Therefore, each meal can last for hours. They take this style of eating very seriously.
