

Reading and listening

Read the adverts for different restaurants. Which restaurant is suitable for the different people? Match the sentences (1-6) with the restaurants (A-C).

A Green Eating

Green Eating is a new vegetarian sandwich and salad bar/restaurant in the shopping centre. Our chef is famous and often prepares food on TV. He makes amazing food (without meat, of course). He always uses delicious fresh fruit and vegetables from our own farm for our very interesting and unusual dishes! The food here at Green Eating is not expensive, and you can eat in the restaurant or take the food away. And it's good for you. Come in and try!

B Really FAST!

Come to Really FAST! for food that's fast and really delicious! Our food is prepared quickly and so is perfect for special days, like birthdays or other parties! Here at Really FAST! you can find everything you love – fast food, burgers, chips, cakes, chocolate, ice cream, fizzy drinks ... everything for that special treat! There are no long waits in our restaurant and we offer good value for money. Pay just £9.50 per person and eat and drink everything you want. See you soon!

C Ciao!

Come and try our new Italian restaurant by the lake in the park. We serve all your favourites – pizza, pasta, chicken, fish and salads. We make everything here in the restaurant from excellent ingredients – including our own very special ice cream with ten different flavours to choose from. We can make food for parties (maximum 20 people) and for a small extra cost we can make your birthday cake, too. Come to Ciao! and ask for our special party menu. But hurry – we are always busy!

1. David doesn't like fresh salads or fruit.
2. Sheila doesn't eat fast food or anything made from dairy products.
3. Peter wants to have a healthy snack.
4. Hayley wants a special cake for her birthday party.
5. Alison is inviting lots of people and she likes fast food which is cheap.
6. Dan wants to have a party in a nice location with outdoor space.

Choose the correct alternatives to complete the sentences.

1. When you go to 'Green Eating', you must / don't have to eat your food at the restaurant.
2. At 'Green Eating' you can / can't order a burger.
3. The taste of the food at 'Really FAST!' is wonderful / terrible.
4. At 'Really FAST!' you don't have to pay any / much extra for drinks.
5. 'Ciao!' buys / makes special Italian ice cream to sell in the restaurant.
6. The party menu at 'Ciao!' doesn't / can't include a birthday cake.

Read the adverts again and answer the questions.

1. What ingredients does the chef at 'Green Eating' use?
2. Is the food at 'Really FAST!' healthy or unhealthy?
3. What is special about the food at 'Ciao!'?
4. What can the chef at 'Ciao' prepare for you if you pay extra?

Listen to four people talking about eating out. Match the speakers (A-D) with the questions (1-5). Use one speaker more than once.

1. Who enjoys fast food that is not expensive?
2. Who thinks restaurants are very expensive?
3. Who isn't only interested in the food?
4. Who often goes to a restaurant before doing something else?
5. Who is learning to cook?

Listen again and complete the sentences with two or three words in each gap.

1. Speaker A's mum usually cooks healthy food like meat with vegetables or
2. Speaker B usually has a meal before going
3. Speaker C and his family sometimes travel to find a good restaurant.
4. Speaker D meets her friends on Saturdays
5. Speaker D often eats at a burger bar or restaurant.

