

The causative (have + object + past participle)

6 Rewrite the sentences using the word given.

- Diane always asks Jean Matie to make her clothes. has
Diane always has her clothes made by Jean Matie.
- Does someone clean your house every week? have
Do you every week?
- We must ask the travel agent to make the arrangements for us. have
We must by the travel agent.
- I have to ask someone to develop these photographs by tomorrow. get
I have to by tomorrow.
- The watchmaker hasn't repaired my watch yet. had
I repaired yet.

- Alexandra Jones is decorating Roy's office. having
Roy by Alexandra Jones.
- You should ask someone to do this as soon as possible. get
You as soon as possible.
- Has a dentist checked your teeth yet? had
Have you yet?
- I wish the hairdresser hadn't cut my hair so short. had
I wish I my hair cut so short.
- We must ask someone to make these copies at once. have
We must at once.

Grammar practice

1 Complete with the causative form. Use the tense given.

- I have my car washed. (my car / wash) once a week. (present simple)
- Jill (her house / break into) while she was in Spain. (past simple)
- We (our living room / redecorate). (present perfect)
- Walter (the tap / fix) when I called him. (past continuous)
- Don't worry. I (this film / develop) tomorrow. (will)
- Mike's over there. He (his photograph / take). (present continuous)
- I (this report / type) by Monday morning. (future perfect)
- We (all our suitcases / send) to the hotel. (past simple)
- Wanda (her hair / cut). (present continuous)
- She (the article / translate). (past perfect)

2 Complete with the causative form.

- We are having our garage rebuilt. (our garage / rebuild) at the moment.
- Dad (his newspaper / deliver) to our house every morning.
- She usually (her breakfast / serve) in her room.
- He (his last book / publish) in 1999.
- I (the letters / just / type).
- The actor (his portrait / paint) two times so far.
- The house (its roof / blow off) in the storm last night.
- Sue (her carpets / clean) when I phoned.
- They (the swimming pool / already / clean) when we visited them.
- I (the door / fix) soon, I promise.