

Underwater Thrills

Listen to the story TWICE and then answers ALL of the questions below.

1. Select the correct answer. In which of the following documents would you most likely look to find the article 'Underwater Thrills'?
 - a. In a comic book
 - b. In a dictionary
 - c. In a fashion magazine
 - d. In a travel magazine
2. Other than fish, give the names of TWO other examples of marine life that are mentioned in the passage?

3. 'The third largest barrier reef of the world is located on the east coast of one of our family islands.' What is the name of the family island on which this barrier reef is located?
4. Read the following sentences. Match the underlined word in each statement with its correct meaning in the box. Write the word next to its correct meaning. One word will not be used.
 - a. Tourist flock to The Bahamas to enjoy our beautiful islands.
 - b. Visitors to our islands enjoy exploring debris from shipwrecks.
 - c. Cruising coral reefs is an unforgettable experience for divers.
 - d. To encounter an array of marine life is second to none!

VOCABULARY WORDS	WORD MEANING
	many different kinds of things to come in large numbers to move leisurely

5. The author's main purpose of writing this passage is to _____.
 - a. continue to attract visitors to the Bahamas.
 - b. explain what blue holes in the Bahamas are like.
 - c. show the importance of the marine life in the Bahamas
 - d. tell persons who visit the Bahamas about the life of sharks