ASK PETE, YOUR COUNSELOR

Dear Pete,
 My name is Alinta. I'm 15 years old. I'm from Sydney, Australia. I'm going on an exchange student program in Brazil. I'm going to stay in Recife (Northeastern Brazil) with a nice family. I know they have beautiful beaches there. I'm very excited, but I'm a little scared too. I don't know anybody in Brazil yet, but I'm eager to make lots of friends and learn Portuguese. What should I do?
 Thanks a lot
 Alinta

Dear Alinta,
 You _____ (worry) about your exchange program. You _____ (be) scared. You _____ (go) to Recife and you _____ (make) new friends there. If that makes you feel better, you _____ (learn) some Portuguese before you go. You _____ (find) a good English-Portuguese dictionary online and you _____ (teach) yourself about five new words a day. You _____ (listen) to some Brazilian music to get used to what this language sounds like. You will probably have a lot of fun, learn a lot and meet some great people soon.
 Good luck, Alinta!
 Pete, Your Counselor
