

Present Simple

Change the following affirmative sentences into negative sentences:

Example:

He eats two apples every day.

He doesn't eat two apples every day.

They do their homework before watching TV.

We travel to Miami every year.

You can play the guitar.

She climbs the tree.

I call my grandma every week.

My father and I watch movies on the weekends.

My cat eats fish and chicken.

Present Continuous

Change the following affirmative sentences into negative sentences:

Example:

They are cleaning the house.

They aren't cleaning the house.

She is watching a movie.

You are eating my lunch!

He is doing his homework.

We are playing chess.

My sister is calling me right now.

My parents are cooking dinner.

I am studying English.