

to live
in a
place:

the inside part
of something:

on or
from the outside:

at the
present
time:

a person who is employed in another person's
house, doing jobs
such as cooking and
cleaning, especially
in the past

sometimes
but not often:

during
the whole
period of
time:

a large stone
structure or
underground room
where someone,
especially an
important person, is buried

a damaged area of the body, such as a
cut or hole in the skin or flesh made
by a weapon:

to stay in the
same place or
in the same
condition:

to make someone feel
that they want
to do something
and can do it:

very
exciting
to look at:

remaining

wound/been
wounded
