Please fill the gaps with the right words in the right form abhorrent, incite, undermine, stifle, disorder, confidential, conceal, reveal, justify, ultimately, intrusion, interfere

1, This information is highly ……., please don't tell anyone.

2, Stop …… in everybody elses's business, you're such a busybody!

3, Without …… your authority, I would like to disagree on this matter.

4, The gangleader …… the angry mob to set the Parliament on fire.

5, No matter how they tried to ……it, the truth came to light.

6, In order to …… his loyalty to the emperor, the samurai slit his own wrist.

7, The sound of the doorbell was a welcome …… in the embarassing silence.

8, There was a terrible state of …… on the streets during the riot.

9, Racism is one of the most …… issues in our society, I am disgusted by it.

10, She had to …… a yawn during the lecture as it was tedious.

11, The spy was executed for …… secrets to the enemy.

12, They had been thinking hard about it, but …… they came to a decision.

LIVEWORKSHEETS