

Relative clauses

1. Choose the correct words to complete the text.

My oldest sister has had a baby recently, (1) WHICH / WHO was a huge event in our family. My little nephew, (2) THAT / WHO is the first grandchild of my parents, is the cutest little boy (3) THAT / WHICH you could ever imagine. My brother-in-law, (4) WHO / WHOSE 35th birthday was only two days before the birth of his first-born, looks like the happiest and proudest man in the world. He was an only child and often says that kids (5) WHO / WHICH have no siblings miss out on very important relationships in life, (6) THAT / WHICH is why he definitely wants to have more children in the future. My sister and I grew up in a house (7) THAT / WHOSE was filled with siblings and cousins and we had a lot of fun, so we both think he's right about this.

2. Choose the correct relative clause to complete each sentence.

1. My cousin, ___, is visiting us this weekend.

- A which is a pilot
- B is a pilot
- C who is a pilot

2. Children ___ by older siblings learn how to fight for their rights.

A bossed around

B which are bossed around

C are bossed around

3. Only children, ___, may deal with fame better later in life.

A are used to receiving a lot of attention

B that are used to receiving a lot of attention

C used to receiving a lot of attention

4. My cousins, ___, live close by.

A whose mum is my dad's sister

B their mum is my dad's sister

C who mum is my dad's sister

5. Children ___ develop social skills earlier.

A go to kindergarten

B that go to kindergarten

C they go to kindergarten

6. Children ___ by their grandparents are more likely to be overweight.

A which are looked after

B looked after

C are looked after

7. Some working mothers ___ decide to work from home.

- A looked after young children
- B who looking after young children
- C looking after young children

8. My friend Jackie, ___, is used to being showered with gifts.

- A that is an only child
- B which is an only child
- C who is an only child