Name:	Date:
***************************************	***************************************
Class:

Simple machines

9	Complete th	e sentences	using the	correct wo	rds.
			3

A polley is used for	or objects.
A	is used for pushing an object up on down.
Α	is used for joining two things together.
Α	is used forpushing things apart.
Α	is used to transport things from one place to another.
Α	is used for moving objects up and down different levels.

2 Read and say TRUE or False .

TRUE

FALSE

- Some machines need energy to function
- Simples machines are which have few or no moving parts
- They don't need energy of a person to work
- There are six types of simples machines
- An example of a simple machines is a bicycle
- A pulley is a simple machine
- You can create simple machines by putting two or more complex machines

