

Listen and fill in the blanks:

Look, Mark, don't go to Blackpool as you usually do. Come to Brighton for your holidays this year. It's than Blackpool and over the past few years the temperatures have been here than in the North, where Blackpool is. Brighton's pier has many more attractions than Blackpool's and the town's fish and shops are as good Blackpool's. Blackpool's beach may be but Brighton's also has a lot more amusement arcades. There is also a very and regular train service from London Brighton. The direct train takes only about 1 . That's a lot less the 4 hours it takes to get to Blackpool. You must come to Brighton this !
