Should or Shouldn't

Give advice about how to have a good job interview.
Use should or shouldn't and the verb in the parentheses.
Remember to use the base form of the verb after should.

1. You _shouldn't bring_ your friend to the interview. (bring)

2. You _should arrive_ on time for the interview. (arrive)

3. You _shouldn't talk_ on the phone during the interview. (talk)

4. You _____ nice clothes. (wear)

5. You _____ when you speak. (smile)

6. You _____ gum. (chew)

7. You _____ your answers. (prepare)

8. You _____ the manager about your skills. (tell)

9. You _____ during the interview. (eat)

10. You _____ your phone. (turn off)

11. You _____ friendly and polite. (be)

12. You _____ during the interview. (drink)

13. You _____ eye contact with the interviewer. (make)

14. You _____ professional. (look)

15. You _____ messy. (be)

16. You _____ cigarettes during the interview. (smoke)

17. You _____ "thank you" at the end of the interview. (say)