

Vocabulary about Community

Instruction: Place the correct words from the word bank into each of the sentences below:

citizen, co-operation, group, identity, kinship, membership, neighborhood, shared interests, society

The people in Stella's all came from very different backgrounds, but they got on very well.

Fred told his class he saw himself as a as well as a brother, son and student.

The two villages pooled their resources as they had in the water-pump project.

The aim of good government is to try to help everyone in to live a safe, prosperous and healthy life.

Everyone who lived in the street took care to look after their and keep it safe.

Amjad felt a strong sense of with his classmates after they had gone on a cricket tour together.

Nothing could have been achieved without the of the local schools.

Mkwande had a complex: he was born in America, had family in Tanzania, and studied in Germany.

The president gave a speech addressing the entire of the beach workers' trade union.