

For «Beginners»

WE MAY RIGHTFULLY CONSIDER THAT THOSE TWO FORMS CAN BE USED INDIFFERENTLY.

Example: I like singing and dancing with my friends; I like talking and hanging around with them, too...

= I like to sing and dance with my friends; I like to talk and hang around with them too...

REMINDER!

A verb ending with the following pattern: "consonant + vowel + consonant", must double the final consonant: -get => getting; run = running; BUT eat=> eating.

ask him/her
about his/her
likes and dislikes. Then,
he/she has to
ask you and you
will answer
him/her.

Questions

The worksheet is set against a desk background with a potted plant, a pair of glasses, a spiral notebook, a laptop, and a pen. Two question cards with torn edges are placed in the center. Navigation arrows are on the left and right sides of the cards. The title 'Questions' is in a large, elegant script font.
