light adventurous camping catch

To go <sup>0</sup> camping in the mountains, you need to be quite <sup>1</sup> strong. There are certainly lots of exciting things you can do there. You can go <sup>2</sup> hiking through the forest, or even <sup>3</sup> rock climbing wild animals. But the best bit for me is when we get back to the tent. My brother's very <sup>4</sup> adventurous so he brings lots of wood back to the tent, and we <sup>5</sup> catch a fire. Then we all feel warm. Sometimes we cook the fish that we <sup>6</sup> catch in the lake. That's great!

Have you ever <sup>0</sup> been on an adventure weekend? They're brilliant! You learn how to survive in the wild. Your teachers show you how to <sup>1</sup> light a fire and <sup>2</sup> catch your own food. And if you've never <sup>3</sup> seen a horse before, now's your chance to try! You can stay in tents if you want. But when I went on an adventure weekend a year ago, we <sup>4</sup> built a shelter, and we <sup>5</sup> slept in it during the night. It was quite comfortable but a bit cold! The next time I go, I want to learn how to <sup>6</sup> catch wild animals. Maybe I'll even see some of them! It will be fun!

horses fish tent boat fire food stars

Jack had a great weekend away camping with his family. When they arrived they all had to help to put up the <sup>0</sup> tent. Then on Saturday they rode some <sup>1</sup> horses at a farm near the campsite. Later, they sailed their <sup>2</sup> boat and caught some <sup>3</sup> fish ready to eat in the evening. Jack learnt how to light a <sup>4</sup> fire and also how to use it to cook their <sup>5</sup> food for supper. Delicious! At the end of the evening, Jack and his family were very tired and they all slept under the <sup>6</sup> stars!

Yesterday Sarah <sup>0</sup> went to a concert with her friends.
There <sup>1</sup> was a lot of people there and her favourite singer <sup>2</sup> was there too. She felt very happy when she <sup>3</sup> met him. Then at the end of the concert there was a man selling the singer's album, so she <sup>4</sup> bought one. Then she <sup>5</sup> saw at the man's face. It was the singer from the band!
How fantastic – she <sup>6</sup> met her favourite singer!

Yesterday my mum bought me a <sup>0</sup> very stylish dress. It's for a <sup>1</sup> big family party next month. The dress was £50 and it's smart <sup>2</sup> enough for the party.
At first Mum said it was <sup>3</sup> too expensive for her to buy, but finally she agreed!
Of course, now my younger sister wants to wear the dress for a friend's party next week, but Mum says that she's not old <sup>4</sup> enough to wear it! I think it's <sup>5</sup> very long for her, and anyway it's <sup>6</sup> not smart enough for her party.

At my school there are lots and lots of things we <sup>0</sup> mustn't do. Our teachers always say we <sup>1</sup> must come to school in our uniforms. If we wear jeans, we <sup>2</sup> can't go into our classroom! We <sup>3</sup> must talk quietly when we're in the library. The teachers get angry if we're loud. And we <sup>4</sup> mustn't use our mobiles in the classroom.
There's a big sign on the wall about that! But I'm happy to say we <sup>5</sup> can eat our lunch in the garden at lunchtime, so that's great – but only when the weather's good. We <sup>6</sup> can't go out when it's raining!
